Unconscious Bias: Thinking Fast & Thinking Slow

- Cognitive shortcuts commonly translate into undervaluing women
- Men expected to be agentic (assertive & decisive)
- Women → communal (nurturing & egalitarian)
- Agentic  $\rightarrow$  confident, analytic, detail-oriented, open, passionate in  $\sigma$
- Communal → women judged more harshly if they are not
- Boost women's self efficacy (mentees)
- Recommend approaches that combine agentic & communal behaviors, role play techniques
- Coach mentees to develop versatile communication skills

Gender Disparities in STEM

- Frequency with which ♂ invite women to speak (Isbell 2012)
- Perception of ♀ trainees' competency and employability (Grunspan 2014; Moss-Racusin 2012)
- Degree of self citations  $\vec{O} > \vec{P}$  (Symonds 2006)
- P more intensive teaching roles; less research intensive institutions

Speaking out about gender imbalance in invited speakers improves diversity

Omissions of qualified women scientists from major meeting programs continue to occur despite a surge in articles indicating persistent gender-discriminatory practices in hiring and promotion, and calls for gender balance in conference organizing committees.

Challenges for Female Medical Students, Housestaff and Junior Faculty

- Fewer females see themselves as leaders
- Women house officers can default to stereotypically female behaviors (apologizing, doing support work), less able to navigate uncomfortable situations with attendings
- Less likely to participate in male dominated networks in male-driven advising

Coming to See Oneself and Be Seen by Others as a Leader

- Fundamental identity shift
- Internalizing a leadership identity & developing a sense of purpose (iterative)

Gender Differences in Leadership Among First Year Medical Students in Small-Group Setting

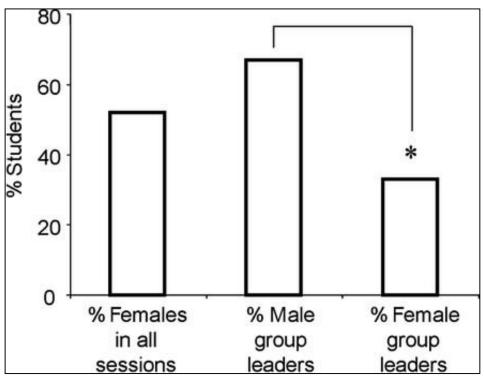

Figure 1 Percentages of men and women who became group leaders under control conditions during Study 1 (2008). Asterisk indicates that significantly fewer group leaders were women compared with men (P < .025).

Wayne. Acad Med 2010;85(8):1276-1281.

Gender Differences in Leadership Among First Year Medical Students in Small-Group Setting

- Gender of small-group leaders monitored
- Control: basic instructions
- Intervention: brief "pep talk" on importance of experiencing a leadership role in a safe environment

- Interviews of students re: their perceptions
- Gender bias in group leaders eliminated by "pep talk"

Wayne et al . Acad Med 2010;85(8):1276-1281.

Leadership Building Blocks

- Getting and using mentors/advisors
- Choosing niche: research, clinical, teaching
- Formal coursework/training
- Hands-on mentored experiences
- Environment & infrastructure
- Communication: direct vs indirect in meetings, presentations, emails,
- Writing: direct vs indirect in abstracts, manuscripts, grants
- Individual Career Development Plan: Competencies, career goals & plan (work & life)

Lean In

- Leadership ambition gap
- Sit at the table
- It's a jungle gym, not a ladder
- Are you my mentor?
- Seek & speak your truth
- Don't leave before you leave
- The myth of "doing it all"
- Let's start talking about it
- Working together toward equality

LEAN IN

- Prove-It-Again
- Tightrope bias
- Maternal wall
- Tug of war

JOAN C. WILLIAMS & RACHEL DEMPSEY FOUR PATTERNS

NEED TO KNOW Works for Women at Work FOREWORD BY ANNE-MARIE SLAUGHTER

Strategies to Overcome "Prove it Again"

- 1. Organize & track your accomplishments; trump stereotype
  - Keep written records, compliments, awards, honors
  - Verbal → facilitate transfer to written (email, note)
  - Special file for achievements, productivity

2. "Get over yourself"

- Speak up, positively disseminate successes
- Don't internalize failures, STOP questioning yourself, DON'T wait to be perfect
- Foster courage, confidence; practice & role play

"Tight Rope" Strategies

- Find your voice
- Prepare for meetings
- Use direct communication
- STOP APOLOGIZING
- Deal with lumpy tasks (get rid of something else, get credit, negotiate for higher status team members to help, report to higher up, secure a budget, sunset & succession plan)

12 Behaviors That May Hold Women Back

- 1. Reluctance to claim achievements
- 2. Expecting others to spontaneously notice and reward your contributions
- 3. Overvaluing expertise
- Just building rather than building and leveraging relationships
- 5. Failing to enlist allies from Day 1

- 6. Putting your job before your career
- 7. The perfection trap
- 8. The disease to please
- 9. Minimizing
- 10. Too much
- 11. Ruminating
- 12. Letting your radar distract you

Helgesen S and Goldsmith M. How Women Rise. Penguin Random House, 2018.

Essential Components to Build Confidence

Confidence – Mastery, action, decisiveness, doing, achievement

Self-esteem – Valuable, like oneself

Optimism – 1/2 full, 1/2 empty, "Pessimist sees difficulty in every opportunity, optimist sees opportunity in every difficulty" Churchill

Self-compassion

Self-efficacy – belief in ability to succeed

Strategies to Promote Resilience

- Reframe rejection, make it more positive
- Deemphasize emotion, be dispassionate
- Provide moral support & encouragement

- Positive thinking & adaptive mindsets
- Foster passion & "fire in the belly"
- Personal financial /fitness training

DeCastro. Acad Med 2014;88:497-504.

Actions to Support Women's Leadership Development

- Educate men & women about 2nd generation gender bias
- Create safe "identity workspaces" to support transitions to bigger roles
- Anchor women's development efforts in sense of leadership purpose
  - not how women are perceived
- These actions help give women insights into themselves & their organization, enabling charting a course to leadership

Mid-Career Faculty Development

"There is no path that goes all the way."

Han-shan

- Essential for success of academic health centers
- Re-examination of commitments at mid-career = important to adult development and resilience
- Begin with fresh look at "Values" and "Priorities"
- Shift from constraints to situations you can modify → opens new possibilities, ↑ ability
- Annual reviews → assess satisfaction with effort distribution, setting term limits on leadership roles to increase opportunities, facilitate fresh ways of thinking about success

Bickel J. Acad Med. 2016:91(12);1601-1605.

Critical Self Inventory

- Set aside time deliberate introspective "pause" (personal or leadership development), "Reflection"
- Reflective reading and writing → life long learning
- Collect feedback (which behavioral tendencies obstruct their progress ?)
  - Overdoing strengths
  - Interpersonal behaviors to ↓ (perfectionism, over speaking)
- Feedback helps close gap between good intentions and actual impact of behaviors
  - How can I do better?
  - Listen for themes

Translate Reflection to PLAN

- In five years I want to be ______.
- However, I currently feel _______.

- In order to close the gap between where I am today to where I want to be,
   I need to focus on _____ and let go of _____.
- To move in that direction I need to sharpen my skills in
- The community, support and accountability I need to move in a new direction is ______.

Distribution of Leadership Styles

Opportunities for Learning to Lead

Ten Commitments of Leadership

PRACTICES	COMMITMENTS
Challenging the Process	1. Search out challenging opportunities to change, grow, innovate, and improve.
	2. Experiment, take risks, and learn from the accompanying mistakes.
Inspiring a Shared Vision	3. Envision an uplifting and ennobling future.
	4. Enlist others in a common vision by appealing to their values, interests, hopes, and dreams.
Enabling Others to Act	5. Foster collaboration by promoting cooperative goals and building trust.
	6. Strengthen people by giving power away, providing choice, developing competence, assigning critical tasks, and offering visible support.
Modeling the Way	7. Set the example by behaving in ways that are consistent with shared values.
	8. Achieve small wins that promote consistent progress and build commitment.
Encouraging the Heart	9. Recognize individual contributions to the success of every project.
	10. Celebrate team accomplishments regularly.

Commitment Number 1 Search Out Challenging Opportunities to Change, Grow, Innovate, and Improve

- Treat every job as an adventure.
- Treat every new assignment as a start-over, even if it isn't.
- Question the status quo.
- Send people shopping for ideas.
- Put idea gathering on your own agenda.
- Go out and find something that needs fixing.
- Assign people to the opportunities.
- Renew your teams.
- Add adventure and fun to everyone's work.
- Take a class; learn a new skill.

Commitment Number 2

Experiment, Take Risks, Learn from the Resulting Mistakes

- Set up little experiments.
- Make it safe for others to experiment.
- Eliminate fire-hosing.
- Work even with ideas that sound strange initially.

- Honor your risk takers.
- Debrief every failure as well as every success.
- Model risk taking.
- Encourage possibility thinking.
- Maximize opportunities for choice.
- Make formal clothing and titles optional.

Feedback That Works

How to Build and Deliver Your Message

Sloan R. Weitzel

Center for Creative Leadership

Effective Feedback

- Capture the situation
- Describe the behavior
- Deliver the Impact

"I don't have time to write performance reviews, so I'll just criticize you in public from time to time."

Common Mistakes in Giving Feedback

- Feedback judges individuals not actions
- Feedback is too vague
- Feedback speaks for others
- Negative feedback sandwiched between positive messages
- Feedback exaggerated with generalities
- Feedback psychoanalyzes motives behind behavior
- Feedback goes on too long
- Feedback contains implies threat
- Feedback uses inappropriate humor
- Feedback is a question not a statement
